

Grammar Practice- 4th Oct

Special class

SET 1

LOD 3 (Hard)

1. (A) Neither the surge in demand nor (B) the delays in procurement (C) has impacted deliveries (D) as severely as was projected. (E) No error
2. (A) Walking through the plant at night, (B) the sudden shutdowns (C) were flagged by the control room (D) within minutes. (E) No error
3. (A) Scarcely had the meeting started (B) when the auditors (C) asked for a recess (D) to review additional documents. (E) No error
4. (A) Not only did the auditors highlight (B) gaps in vendor controls, (C) but also recommended (D) withholding the next tranche. (E) No error
5. (A) The steering committee (B) comprises of (C) senior faculty, industry mentors, (D) and two student representatives. (E) No error

LOD 2 (Moderate)

1. (A) If I was offered (B) a role at the incubator, (C) I would (D) accept immediately. (E) No error
2. (A) Each of the interns (B) have submitted (C) the project abstract (D) on the portal. (E) No error

Handwritten notes in red ink:

~~Y (Manny) (a soldier) lost his life - (was) missing~~

Many soldiers Each and every (man) is important ↑ correct has

KC (to abstract) 1 mm

Each man
Each man

abstraction a part, total whenever you start your sentence with a negative adverb → conjunction

How (did) you (get) know?

Where (are) you going?

(I) subject (m.v.)

Rarely
Barely
Seldom Hardly

✓ Rarely do I go for movies on weekdays Rarely I go for movies'

the train had left No sooner (had the train left) than I realised that I forgot to carry my tickets

No sooner . . . than Scoreby . . . when

→ modifier
Walking on the beach, I met my old friend

modifier
Watching the movie, John saw that the lights went off

While I was _____

3. (A) We discussed about (B) the merger timelines (C) at length (D) yesterday. (E) No error
4. (A) The venue sold (B) less than fifty tickets (C) despite extended early-bird offers (D). (E) No error
5. (A) She prefers (B) working from campus (C) to work from home (D) on client days. (E) No error

Equipment → mass noun furniture

they don't -
She like / It be will

Easy

1. (A) There is (B) many reasons (C) to postpone (D) the launch. (E) No error
2. (A) She don't (B) agree with (C) the proposal (D) at present. (E) No error
3. (A) The equipments (B) arrived late (C) due to (D) customs checks. (E) No error
4. (A) I am looking forward (B) to meet (C) the panel (D) next week. (E) No error
5. (A) The manager will (B) revert back (C) by Monday (D) on this. (E) No error due to = because of meeting → proposal

proposi → verb

back vs implied

(get back) = revert phrasal verb

does
↓
singular do
↓
plural

Object of preposition

Prepositions never come alone.

They are always followed by their objects.
We call them "object of preposition"

I cannot come with you pronoun

I cannot live without alcohol noun

I am fond of drinking gerund

I know everything about what you did last night dependent clause

SET 2

LOD 3 (Hardest)

1. (A) Not only has the company reduced costs (B) this quarter, (C) but also improving (D) customer-service metrics. (E) No error
2. (A) Being a pilot, (B) the late-night shifts (C) were routine (D) to her. (E) No error
3. (A) Scarcely had the results been announced (B) when the market (C) rallied sharply (D) in early trade. (E) No error
4. (A) One of the factors (B) that influences adoption (C) is (D) perceived risk. (E) No error
5. (A) The task force (B) comprises of (C) senior faculty (D) and external advisors. (E) No error

(It is high time) S + (past verb) that he took

LOD 2 (Moderate)

1. (A) It is high time (B) he takes responsibility (C) for the delay (D) in dispatches. (E) No error
2. (A) Each of the interns (B) have submitted (C) the project abstract (D) on the portal. (E) No error regular has signature

when you have auxiliary verbs before main verbs the 's' drops

3. (A) We discussed ~~about~~ (B) the merger timelines (C) at length (D) yesterday. (E) No error

→ She^(s) knows^(v) me^(o) is She must know.
(s) (v) (o) me^(o)

(E)

4. (A) Neither the directors nor (B) the chairperson (C) is available (D) for comment. (E) No error

5. (A) Either the mentors or (B) the student committee (C) must submit (D) their report by Friday. (E) No error

Easy

1. (A) Each student (B) have to (C) register for (D) the workshop. (E) No error has condition → Tenses → is/Is

2. (A) This prototype is (B) more better (C) than the (D) previous version. (E) No error

3. (A) The client (B) insisted to meet (C) the entire team (D) before sign-off. (E) No error

→ This question tests the concept of tenses

4. (A) By the time we reached (B) the center, (C) the exam already started (D) at 10 a.m. (E) No error had past perfect

5. (A) The news (B) was shocking (C) to everyone (D) in the office. (E) No error

singular

→ [She (can) like ice cream] → logical error

She likes ice cream

She might like ice cream should will would may moral obligation

→ [right to] →

SET 3

LOD 3 (Hardest)

1. (A) Rarely (B) the auditors have (C) encountered such resistance (D) during a statutory review. (E) No error
2. (A) Not only did the proposal reduce costs, (B) (C) but also improving (D) vendor responsiveness in two cycles. (E) No error
3. (A) No sooner had the circular been issued (B) than teams (C) aligned their plans (D) within hours. (E) No error
4. (A) The ethics committee recommended (B) that the vendor (C) is blacklisted (D) for repeated breaches. (E) No error
5. (A) More than one (B) senior manager (C) are attending (D) the awards night. (E) No error

LOD 2 (Moderate)

1. (A) Each of the shortlisted candidates (B) have been (C) called for a second round (D) this Friday. (E) No error
2. (A) Neither the director nor (B) the managers (C) is available (D) for comment. (E) No error

3. (A) The new policy (B) has led to (C) less errors (D) in documentation. (E) No error
4. (A) Between you and I, (B) the pilot (C) needs more testing (D) before launch. (E) No error
5. (A) One of the issues (B) that needs addressing (C) is unrealistic timelines (D) set for deployment. (E) No error

Easy

1. (A) The luggage (B) were left (C) unattended (D) near the counter. (E) No error
2. (A) I will (B) attend to (C) the session (D) at 4 p.m. (E) No error
3. (A) She is (B) good in (C) mathematics and physics (D) at school. (E) No error
4. (A) He didn't (B) knew (C) about the updated rubric (D) for evaluation. (E) No error
5. (A) I prefer (B) tea (C) than coffee (D) in the evenings. (E) No error

SET 4

LOD 3 (Hardest)

1. (A) Hardly had the team finalized (B) the roadmap (C) than the budget (D) was slashed by half. (E) No error
2. (A) It is essential that (B) every candidate (C) is informed (D) of the revised rubric. (E) No error
3. (A) Only if all documents (B) are verified (C) the portal allows (D) final submission. (E) No error
4. (A) Not until the audit (B) was complete (C) did the payments (D) get released to vendors. (E) No error
5. (A) No less than twenty participants (B) from different institutes (C) is waiting (D) outside the seminar hall. (E) No error
6. (A) The guidelines permit (B) as much as (C) fifty volunteers (D) to register per center. (E) No error
7. (A) The selection criteria (B) for scholarships (C) are public (D) on the university site. (E) No error

8. (A) The proposal is (B) different than (C) the one approved (D) last year. (E) No error
9. (A) The budget was divided (B) between (C) the marketing, operations, (D) and finance teams. (E) No error
10. (A) Emerging technologies like (B) AI, blockchain, and IoT (C) are reshaping (D) traditional supply chains. (E) No error

LOD 2 (Moderate)

1. (A) Neither of the options (B) were aligned (C) with the brand (D) guidelines shared last week. (E) No error
2. (A) A number of startups (B) is seeking (C) seed funding (D) this quarter. (E) No error
3. (A) The number of applicants (B) have risen (C) sharply (D) after the policy change. (E) No error
4. (A) He has been working (B) on the algorithm (C) since two months (D) without a break. (E) No error
5. (A) The manager insisted (B) that the report (C) to be sent (D) before noon. (E) No error

6. (A) He is considered (B) as a pioneer (C) in digital cartography (D) by many. (E) No error
7. (A) She is senior (B) than most of (C) her peers (D) in the cohort. (E) No error
8. (A) The CFO, with the heads of units, (B) have agreed (C) to the revised targets (D) for Q3. (E) No error
9. (A) One of those ideas (B) that needs (C) more testing (D) is the dynamic pricing module. (E) No error
10. (A) Either of the strategies (B) are workable (C) if the budget (D) is approved. (E) No error

Easy

1. (A) There are (B) a large amount (C) of complaints (D) about the new app. (E) No error
2. (A) She didn't (B) told (C) anyone (D) about the change. (E) No error
3. (A) The team is (B) going to (C) discuss about (D) the findings today. (E) No error
4. (A) He is (B) more taller (C) than his (D) elder brother. (E) No error

5. (A) I prefer (B) to work from home (C) rather than (D) working late at office. (E) No error
6. (A) She insisted (B) on to pay (C) the fee (D) immediately. (E) No error
7. (A) The committee (B) have decided (C) to postpone (D) the event. (E) No error
8. (A) He is good (B) at explaining (C) concepts (D) to the juniors. (E) No error
9. (A) The meeting (B) was postponed (C) on yesterday (D) because of heavy rain. (E) No error
10. (A) Everyone (B) have submitted (C) the assignment (D) before time. (E) No error